MONDAY MORNING, MAY 18 1863

By Telegraph

Our latest dispatches this morning do not confirm previous reports as to the advance of Gen Hooker, but give a more satisfactory statement of the result of the battle so far as the condition and number of the wounded are reported It also appears that the telegraph across the continent has for several days been working so badly that it has been almost impossible to get a connected communication We wish it would stop working entirely till it can stop reporting lies For a week we have had a series of falsehoods all inconsistent with each other and all reported with the solemn apparent gravity of Holy Writ We hope in future to be spared the infliction of any such mischief, for though part of it has been very welcome for a day, and until contradicted, the balance has been full of bitterness, while we feared it might be true As to the whole story, we have only to say, that Hooker's attempt to cross the Rappahannock was a failure attended with some but not serious loss, that Gen Stoneman by his bold gallantry, proved himself to be more than a match for Gen Stonewall, and won a success which fully compensated in a military point of view, for the disasters sustained for Hooker

The Sacramento Union has a report that the court martial in the case of Vallandigham have submitted a decision to Gen Burnside which has not been made public Also, that it is reported that General Van Dorn was instantly killed by Dr Peters of Maury county Tennessee, at the house of the latter Deserters also report that Bragg was killed by Breckinridge some days since, on account of the bad treatment of the Kentucky troops We give these reports as they come to us not vouching for their truth.

California Railroad —We learn that Col Geo. H. Belden, well known in this State as for many years the chief clerk in the office of the Surveyor General, has been requested to take charge of the preliminary survey of the Oregon part of the route of the proposed railroad between this city and the Sacramento valley We are glad that so wise a selection has been made, as his experience and knowledge abundantly qualify him for the faithful performance of the duty assigned to him, and also because it will also tend to inspire more confidence in the minds of the citizens of the State in the project We trust that there will be a prompt response to the call for subscriptions to meet the expenses of the survey, which cannot fail, if conducted by Mr Belden, to be of great practical benefit, not only in reference to the railroad but as affecting other interests—in developing feasible routes for common roads and the vast natural resources of the Willamette valley and of Southern Oregon

What Jefferson Said —The tenacious quibblers about the constitutional rights of rebels and of their sympathizers,—who lift their hands in holy horror when traitors are arrested, and newspapers in the interest of the rebellion are suppressed profess to regard Jefferson as the founder of Democracy, the patron saint of their faith He however, had no notions like theirs as to the inviolability of legal rights, when the nation is in peril He said, justly

> A strict observance of the written law is doubtless one of the highest duties of a good citizen, but not the highest The law of necessity, of self preservation, of saving our country when in danger, are of higher obligation To lose our country by a scrupulous adherence to written law would be to lose the law itself, with life, liberty, property and all those who are enjoying them with us, thus absurdly sacrificing the end to the means

Pacific Mail Steamship Company —The New York papers announce that this company intend to place on the Panama route, as soon as possible, four new ships the Golden City the Sacramento the Vancouver, and the Washoe. The first is nearly finished, and will shortly leave New York, and the others will be completed during the present season If the proposed opposition increases the facilities of travel it will accomplish much even if fares continue as at present, for the crowded condition of such old ships as the Sonora and the Orizaba has too long been a public nuisance

The Argus and the State Republican have united their forces and on Saturday issued the first number of the new series under the name of the Oregon Argus Mechanically the paper looks well and editorially being the work of the old editor of the Argus it bears all his characteristics

Gen Stoneman —This officer who now commands in chief the 12,000 cavalry attached to Gen Hooker's army is an officer of the regular United States army and at the opening of the rebellion held the rank of Major in the 4th U S Cavalry whose Colonel was the now Gen Sedgwick On the 14th of August 1861 Stoneman was made a Brigadier-General of Volunteers and last winter a Major General of Volunteers He is a native of the State of New York His present command is the largest and most efficient cavalry army ever seen upon the field on this continent

By Overland Telegraph.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN

Hooker's Loss much less than Reported.

Stonewall Jackson Wounded.

Rebel General Van Dorn Killed.

New York May 11th —The [illegible] has the following: Steamer [illegible] arrived at Washington on Saturday evening May 9th with dispatches from Hooker. The following is reported to the [illegible] of them:

At daybreak on Friday May 8th Hooker pushed forward two corps of the army under Gen Sedgwick across the Rappahannock — [illegible] the wounded [illegible] held in the [illegible] until [illegible] of both armies and buried the dead. At an early hour Hooker completed the crossing of the entire army [illegible] ample supply of ammunition and stores for [illegible] days. As soon as he was across, the 7th corps were put in motion and deployed in [illegible] search for the enemy who at the last accounts, had not been found in force

It is not believed that Heintzelman has gone to reinforce Hooker but there is no doubt that his command is in motion

Philadelphia May 11th —The Washington correspondent of the Press says Persons from the army of the Potomac May 9th represent the army to be in the best of spirits The number of killed is found to be [illegible] very large It is believed no effort was made by the enemy to harass them The fact that they left [illegible] entirely confirmed Hooker in the belief that they had been much cut up Owing to the terrible condition of the roads the passage of the troops is very slow

The next engagement will probably take place near the upper Pamunky with the army we are moving as rapidly as possible Many maintain that James river will be the next line the rebels will defend

It is reported to day that skirmishing with the enemy's rear guard has commenced It is also reported that Fredericksburg and the Heights of St Mary have been occupied by our troops

New York May 11 —The Richmond papers of the 9th say that Stonewall Jackson's right arm is reported to have been amputated above the elbow

The Times of this morning says it is known that Hooker has transferred his army to the south side of the Rappahannock, with the purpose no doubt, of again assuming offensive operations

A letter to the Herald dated West Point Va May 7th reports the [illegible] of that place by a large force under Keyes and a reconnoissance to White House

The steamer from Port Royal, May 6th, reports that all the iron clads had gone to North Edisto and our troops continue in possession of Folly, Seabrook and Coles islands They were entrenching themselves

Plain Words —The following letter from Gen Stoneman who has just accomplished so much in cutting off and destroying communication between the rebel army and Richmond, shows that he has a patriot's heart as well as a soldier's courage and boldness

Headquarters Cavalry Corps,
Army of Potomac, April 8th, 1863

James A Roosevelt Secretary Loyal National League, No 94 Maiden Lane, New York—Sir I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of an invitation from the "Loyal National League" to unite with it in the ceremonies connected with its inauguration (in Union Square New York city) on the anniversary of the day upon which the war upon the Government was begun in the bombardment of Fort Sumter

Permit me to assure you that nothing would give me more unfeigned satisfaction than to be present upon the occasion, did duty to my country in another field permit my presence in your city at this time These are times which demand that every true soldier and lover of his country should be at his post either battling with an arrogant and powerful foe in front or crushing out an equally dangerous and more unprincipled foe at home—and it is hoped that the efforts of the "League," among other things may be directed toward holding up to execration those men who under the shield of "free speech" seek to paralyze the earnest endeavors of those who are ready to offer up as a willing sacrifice, upon the altar of their beloved country their lives and their all for the honor and integrity of their nation and her nation's flag You can rest assured that this army has a thorough hatred for the rebels in the front, it has an equal hatred intensified by scorn, for traitors at home, and that we would hang the one with the same satisfaction that we would shoot the other We have nothing in common with Southern principles, and no patience with Northern sympathizers—and we warn them that the day will come when we will make it more unpleasant for them to remain where they will then be, than it would be dangerous for them to come where we now are With my best wishes for the successful accomplishment of the objects set forth in your letter and with the hope that I may be honored with the privilege of being considered a member of the Loyal National League, I have the honor to be, very respectfully,

Your obt servt

Major General

Queries —Have you ever heard a self styled "Constitutional Democrat" say aught against the monstrous rebellion of Jeff Davis and his fellow conspirators?

Have you ever heard this interesting personage denounce or condemn the infamously treasonable organization of the "Knights of the Golden Circle?"

Have you ever heard of his approving of one single measure of the Government for the suppression of the rebellion, and the vindication of its rightful authority?

Have you ever heard these constitutional blatants quote a single sentence from the instrument of which they are the self constituted and silly expounders?

Is it not an interesting sight to see a man who can scarcely read easy lessons by spelling half the words laying down with dogmatic exactness the great principles of constitutional law? Bah!

RECORDER'S COURT —Business was very dull before the Recorder on Saturday, only one case up. A boy named Joseph Turnbull threw a stone at and struck Mathew Patton, another boy, severely injuring h m for this and other bad conduct, the youngster was sentenced to twenty-four hours' confinement in the city jail. There is a large number of bad boys in Portland, and their appearance before the Recorder is becoming, of late quite frequent Many have been dealt w th leniently on account of their parents and a promise to do better, but this does not seem to improve their morals in the least A few days in the city jail for each demeanor may have a beneficial effect, and which is the only and about the mildest course left for the Recorder to pursue in such cases Parents and guardians will have to train up children in a different way, or our city will be compelled to establish a House of Correction

ANOTHER EXCURSION —The steamer E D Baker started up this morning with a large party aboard, also bound on an excursion to Dalles They were accompanied by the Mechanics' Brass Band, numbering about fifteen pieces, which discoursed sweet music as the boat passed out of sight We hope they will have a merry time The city of Dalles will be a lively place for a day or two

Pacific University

The commencement of the Pacific University and the exhibition of the Tualatin Academy, took place at Forest Grove May 6th and 7th. As one of the invited, I arrived in the middle of the examinations and on Thursday morning listened, for a while, to the College classes. Algebra, Geometry and Natural Philosophy, were treated. The questions were searching and the answers satisfactory. The clear intelligence of the pupils showed great ability in their instructors. The classical department examined by Professor Marsh made an equally good impression. The translations in Cicero and Xenophon were good, and the analysis of sentences proved the students to be well informed in both English and Ancient grammar. I regard the exercises in Livy by Mr E Walker as very creditable indeed showing a thoroughness and ability that a College student might be proud of anywhere. I have no more doubt about the possibility of obtaining a thorough mathematical and classical course of instruction in Oregon. It can be had at the Grove. In the afternoon the degree of A B was conferred on Mr Harvey Scott the first graduate of the University and of Oregon, (he having completed a full collegiate course as prescribed in first class Eastern Colleges,) after which we listened to a very able literary address from Amory Holbrook, Esq. In the evening the College classes appeared on the stage with their orations. The young men were of good address, their ability more than average, the delivery good, and the orations, together with the compositions of the young ladies of the Academy, were characterized by good sense, a high moral tone, and the style by terseness, perspicuity and propriety, evidencing intellectual and moral culture of a high order. The music I deemed very good. The College building is large and well fitted up. The library is extensive, and the authors are very well selected.

Forest Grove, on the edge of the Plains, with the coast range of mountains to the west, the prairies stretching out to the east and north, with a fine view of Mounts Hood and St. Helens in the distance is a beautiful location for a University. The Professors, four in number, each graduates of first-class Eastern Colleges, are a collegiate educational force highly respectable anywhere and certainly unequalled in Oregon. The next term commences in August, the number of pupils will not probably exceed twenty-five. The funds enable the University to retain its instructors, thus giving to each student an amount of direct personal attention that insures his rapid advance. Upon the whole I think the institution will commend itself to any parent as a very desirable place for the education of his son.

The Female Seminary is separate, and under the care of Mrs Tanner and Mrs Marsh.

AUDITOR TANTUM

FURTHER REPORT OF THE WAR COMMITTEE.—Part second of the report of the Committee on the Conduct of the War has been issued. It embraces the battles of Bull Run and Ball's Bluff. In relation to the former, the Committee state the great error of that campaign was the failure to occupy Centerville and Manassas when Alexandria was occupied in May, 1861. The forces which opposed us were mostly collected and brought to Manassas in June and July. The three months men could have made Manassas easily defensible against any force the enemy could have brought against it, and it is not at all probable that the rebel forces would have been advanced from the lines of the Rappahannock, had Manassas been occupied by our troops. The next cause of disaster was the delay in proceeding against the enemy until the time of the three months men had expired, and when the movement was finally determined upon, much was needed to render the troops efficient. Little time had been devoted to disciplining them even as regiments. Hardly any instructions had been given in reference to brigade movements, and none at all as divisions. The practical cause of our defeat was the failure of General Patterson to hold the forces of Johnson in the Shenandoah Valley.

In relation to the battle of Ball's Bluff, the Committee, after giving an account of the engagement, etc, say all the testimony goes to prove all the means of transportation were very inadequate. Gen Stone, while inclined to deem it sufficient, left much to the judgment of others, and this much can be said for him, that he received no intimation that a movement across the river would be expected from him or would be justified until the day before it was actually made, and the Committee add, the reasons he had for supposing other forces were within a short distance to render him assistance are set forth in a previous portion of this report. This relates to the movements of General McCall to Drainsville, for the purpose of reconnoitering the country.

In reference to reinforcing Col Baker the testimony was very conflicting. Gen Stone testified that he received no intimation from Col Baker that he needed reinforcements, that he received little if any information from Col. Baker in reference to affairs at Ball's Bluff, and even if reinforcements had been needed they could not have been sent up on the Virginia side in consequence of the enemy's earthworks and batteries between Edward's Ferry and Ball's Bluff. Some other witnesses testified to the same effect; others say there was no obstacle to troops passing up the Virginia side. The Committee refrain from expressing a positive opinion on this point.

In reference to the arrest of Gen Stone, the Committee say they informed Secretaries Cameron and Stanton that some explanation from Stone was required. He appeared before the Committee and made explanations in general terms concerning the testimony against him in regard to undue intercourse with the enemy, etc.

The Committee reported to the Secretary of War that the testimony was conflicting, without any recommendation as to what should be done. It afterwards appeared from the testimony of Gen McClellan that Gen. Stone was arrested on the written orders of the Secretary of War, for the reason that he had been informed by members of the Committee on the Conduct of the War that they had taken testimony going to show that he had been guilty of conduct not consistent with loyalty.

Gen Stone since his release has been permitted to examine all the testimony and demanded that he be furnished with a copy of the charges against him. Why this request was not granted, the Committee is uninformed.

MISSIONARY WORK.—Gens. Rosecrans and Burnside have been made life members of the Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in New Albany Indiana. Both these gallant officers have for the past eighteen months been laboring faithfully in the missionary work for the conversion of the Southern heathen.

A man who avoids matrimony on account of the cares of wedded life, is compared to one who would amputate a leg to save his toes from corns.

In navigating the sea of life carefully avoid the breakers—especially the heart breakers.

Rev Mr. Splatterdash has embraced Spiritualism, and declares he will never preach about matter any more. Then we suppose it is no matter what he preaches about.

The Peoria Ill, Mail tells the following:—An old merchant of the town of R——, in the old Bay State, was noted for his dishonesty. After many years of fraudulent practices, he very suddenly, and to the great surprise of all who knew him became very pious and joined the popular church of the town. One Sunday evening, while exhorting the brethren he remarked that he had done many things for which he felt sorry, and he deemed it his duty to make full restitution to those whom he had wronged, he therefore notified all such that if they would call at his store he would do so.

About four o clock the next morning a gentleman called at his house, and aroused him from his bed. Raising the window he demanded the business of the intruder, at that early hour.

"Is this Mr B——?"

"That is my name sir."

"Well, I understand that you have offered to make restitution to all whom you have cheated. You will remember that on one occasion I suffered by you to the extent of fifty dollars, and I have called to get it."

"Why did you not wait until proper hours and then call at my store?"

"Simply this, that if I did I thought that there would be such a d—— of a rush there that I couldn't get anything."

LEGAL

U. S. INCOME TAX.

THE LAW CONTEMPLATES THAT EVERY ONE shall pay an Income Tax who has $600 derived from any source whatever. A person is allowed to deduct all legally assessed National, State and County Taxes, hired help, Rents, Draying, &c, necessary to carry on business [illegible] has a right to deduct [illegible] from his income.

The Income Tax is to be paid on the Income of the year commencing January 1st, 1862, and ending December 31st, 1862, every individual making a return of their income [illegible] As income from any sources [illegible] Dividends, and Rail and Bonds and Stocks, Insurance, [illegible] Savings banks, [illegible] (they having already paid the Income Tax, are not again taxed. It therefore becomes necessary to have a clear record of these sources of income [illegible] no dispute with the Assessor.

A Corporations must deduct the three per centum before declaring their dividends.

For Example:

A man in business must make up the nett profits of his business for the year, and pay the tax on the amount less $600.

A man may outside of his business spend all and even more than his profits in the business, nevertheless he must pay tax on all nett business profits except the $600. And so with a salary, all over $600 must be taxed, though personal or family expenses may absorb it all.

The Income Tax for the year 1862 is assessable on the first day of May 1863, and is due and payable on or before the 30th June, 1863. And if any one neglects to pay it for thirty days after the 30th June, as aforesaid, and for ten days after demand by the Collector, five per centum will be added to the amount due.

Each individual of any firm or partnership must make up his income separately.

PHILADELPHIA, PENN.,

JAUNDICE,

Chronic or Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver or Stomach.

And will positively prevent Yellow Fever, Bilious Fever, &c.

THEY CONTAIN

NO ALCOHOL OR BAD WHISKEY!

They will cure the above diseases in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred.

INDUCED by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters (purely vegetable), hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers have opened upon suffering humanity the flood-gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor Whiskey, vilely compounded with injurious drugs and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles, and big bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters, which instead of curing, only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair.

Hoofland's German Bitters!

Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public; and their reputation and sale are not rivalled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN,

PHYSICIANS

CITIZENS,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

Do you want something to strengthen you?

Do you want a good appetite?

Do you want to build up your constitution?

Do you want to feel well?

Do you want to get rid of nervousness?

Do you want energy?

Do you want to sleep well?

Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

If so, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From Rev J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters prepared by Dr C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq. for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before and had almost despaired of regaining. I, therefore, thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

J. NEWTON BROWN.

PHILADELPHIA, June 23, 1861.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF [illegible]

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by the exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters."

PHILADELPHIA, August 23, 1862.

Messrs Jones & Evans—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly the physicians who had been working faithfully though unsuccessfully to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.
